

Mel and Enid Zuckerman
College of Public Health

Organization Name

Nosotros Comprometidos A Su Salud

Level of Expertise Needed

Undergraduate public health intern (senior status during internship-must have completed HPS 350 prior to internship).

Internship Project Title

Community Health Education, Outreach, and Research Immersion Training

Project Description

- Work with a team of professionals in a positive environment
- Assist with community outreach and engagement events for research with Mexican-origin and American Indian communities
- Attend and participate in staff meetings
- Observe and assist in scientific and community-based presentations
- Contribute to the creation of health content for social media platforms
- Complete research training
- Guest author a health and wellness article
- Participate in day-to-day operations of the department, as needed
- Help with data entry and data management for research studies
- Support participant recruitment and outreach activities representing the research group with community partners
- Supports program staff with day-to-day operational activities and other research activities

Student Characteristics

- Dependable
- Organized
- Self-Starter
- Interested in health equity, wellness, cancer prevention
- Creative thinker and effective problem-solver
- Works well both independently and with a team
- Bilingual (preferred): English and Spanish and/or ability to speak Dine (Navajo) and/or Uto-Aztecan (O'odham)
- Good communicator

Background of Organization

Nosotros Comprometidos a Su Salud-Committed to Your Health, is a program within the Mel & Enid Zuckerman College of Public Health. Our mission is to reduce health disparities faced by Mexican-origin communities and other Hispanic communities in Southern Arizona by fostering community-engaged research collaborations, services, and education to advance health equity.

Our mission is to reduce health disparities faced by Mexican-origin communities and other Hispanic communities in Southern Arizona.

<https://publichealth.arizona.edu/outreach/nosotros-comprometidos-su-salud>

Where

The University of Arizona Collaboratory for Metabolic Disease Prevention & Treatment. 3950 S. Country Club Road, Suite 330 (Inside the Abrams Public Health Building)

<https://collaboratory.arizona.edu/>

When

Fall and Spring semesters (3- or 6-unit internships)

Supervision

Primary: David O. Garcia, PhD – Director; Edgar Villavicencio, MPH – Research Director

Intern Title

Community Health Education, Outreach, and Research Immersion Training

Compensation/Benefits

Compensation:

- Course credit is given for this internship (no financial compensation)

Benefits:

- Experience working with and learning alongside an award-winning Health Promotion department
- Learn the complexity of health promotion and risk reduction on a large college campus
- Improve skills related to health communication (oral and written), event planning, public health practice, assessment, and evaluation
- Real-world experience in a college health setting
- Develop a more in-depth resume and portfolio
- Build knowledge of professional etiquette and expertise

Application Contact Information

Please fill out an Internship Application Form using this link: <https://redcap.link/08pivvk6>

Application deadlines

August 9th for the Fall Semester and November 22nd for the Spring Semester