

Safety & Health Apprentice

Student Intern Position Description

Organization: Safety Office at Davis-Monthan Air Force Base

Preferred Majors: Occupational Safety, Health, Fire

Work Center Focus

Implementation and management the installation occupational safety program in accordance with applicable regulatory guidance for 6000 personnel, 1900 facilities, 118 aircraft and $4.8B in material resources.

Intern Duties

Safety education materials development, research, class instruction, assessment/ inspection assistance utilizing safety and health criteria, hazard reporting/abatement assistance, mishap reporting/investigation and trend analyses assistance, risk management and hazard analyses, safety meeting/council attendance, aid construction/design review. Administrative tasks, as needed.

Supervisor Contact Info

Debra Charles, Occupational Safety Manager

Debra.charles@us.af.mil

520-228-5558

This unpaid internship can be used to satisfy course requirements, build your resume or help you explore specialties within your chosen career field.

Check out <https://www.usajobs.gov/Search/?hp=student&k=recent%20graduate&p=3> to find paid Federal internships for recent grads.